Greater Union County

A CARING COMMUNITY OF WOMEN

Women United is a national and local initiative of women philanthropists that are devoted to giving to United Way and committed to fighting for the health, education and income stability of women across the world. This is a growing global force, with 165 communities over 6 countries engaging in this initiative. Women United is more than just an opportunity to volunteer. With the unparalleled resources of United Way, Women United members can STRATEGIZE, ADVOCATE, and MAKE LASTING LOCAL CHANGES in their communities.

In Union County, Women United seeks to improve maternal and child health conditions. This encompasses family planning, the health of mothers before and after pregnancy, and the health of infants and children. Women United also focuses on early childhood development, as this can form the basis for a child's intelligence, personality, and capacity to learn. There is a great need to improve, as Union County performs significantly worse than most other New Jersey counties in infant mortality, babies with very low birth weights, and teen birthrate. Additionally, studies have found that Black (24% of Union County residents) and Hispanic (32% of Union County residents) mothers experience almost double the rate of infant mortality and teen pregnancy, respectively. Women United seeks to change these odds for Union County mothers so that all children and families can have the opportunity to succeed in school and life.

We invite you to become a member of Women United and join a diverse group of over 70,000 leaders across the U.S.! As a supporter, you will be able to make a direct investment in the lives of mothers and children in Union County, and network with like-minded women and community leaders. With your help and the will of our Women United members, we hope to give all local families the support and resources needed to overcome their challenges and achieve their potential. Thank you for your interest, and remember to Live United!
